Customer Reviews

As a student of family mediation this publication was exactly what I needed. It gives a clear and understandable account (supported by research) of the parents and child's emotional states and responses when important relationships break up - with tools to help the mediator. For me it is a text I will refer to time and again whilst planning for a mediation.

This is an imminently readable , very helpful, insightful text. I read it on the recommendation of a parenting coordinator and was only sorry not to have discovered it years earlier.

This is a must have for anyone who works with children of divorce and high conflict families. Robert Emery is excellent.
