Customer Reviews

Well, I've learned a bit from it, but it reads like they were so rushed to get the second edition out that they completely by-passed editing. In the Examples he's will switch to she's, names will change, companies will change, claims of and types of harassment will change. But this finally put me over the edge: Page 126: "The Supreme Court . . . ruled that Â Â§704(a) retaliation cases were not susceptible to mixed motive analysis." Page 129: "Although the Supreme Court has not ruled on this issue, the prevailing view among those circuit courts is that mixed motive analysis is available for retaliation claims." Well which is it???
